WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 21, 2015: Senator Pat Roberts (R-KS), Chairman of the Eisenhower Memorial Commission, and Senator Bob Dole, Finance Chairman of the Campaign for the Eisenhower Memorial, today announced that three distinguished former Secretaries of State have joined the memorial's Advisory Committee:

- Secretary Henry A. Kissinger
- Secretary Madeleine K. Albright
- Secretary Condoleezza Rice

Secretaries Kissinger, Albright and Rice join three of their colleagues, former Secretaries of State George Shultz, James A. Baker, III, and General Colin L. Powell, USA (Ret.) who already serve on the Advisory Committee.

Senator Roberts commented on the additions of these prominent Americans to the team dedicated to ensuring that a memorial to President Dwight D. Eisenhower is built in Washington, DC:

I am both humbled and heartened by the significant number of prominent Americans who have lent their support to the National Eisenhower Memorial. The Advisory Committee is a bipartisan Who's Who of prominent Americans from the business, government, military, diplomatic, academic worlds and opinion leaders. The broad support of the memorial sends a strong statement that it is time to begin building this memorial to a great American.

Numerous distinguished Americans serve on the Eisenhower Memorial Commission's Advisory Committee, including: Committee Co-Chairmen General P.X. Kelley, USMC (Ret.), former Chairman of the American Battle Monuments Commission and Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps; Frank Fahrenkopf, Co-Chairman of the Commission on Presidential Debates; Senator Bob Dole; numerous former Members of Congress, Cabinet officers and high-ranking government and military officials; opinion leaders and historians.

EISENHOWER MEMORIAL COMMISSION: Created by Congress, the bipartisan commission includes eight members of Congress and four Presidential appointees.
